The 1st Announcement
SCIENTIFIC CONFERENCE
“30-year of the Institute of Geography: Innovation and sustainable development”

Dear friends and colleagues,

On the occasion of the 30th anniversary (1993-2023) of the establishment of the Institute of Geography, Vietnam Academy of Science and Technology is going to organize an International Scientific Conference with the theme: “30 years of the Institute of Geography: innovation and sustainable development” on November 8th and the 30-year ceremony will be held on 9th November 2023.

The conference aims to introduce, exchange, and promote scientific research results, technology, and experiences among domestic and international scientists. The topics of the conference will cover rational use and resource recovery; circular economy development, green growth; disaster prevention and mitigation, and related issues.

At the request of many scientists, there are still many submissions that have not yet been submitted to the system. In order to give scientists more time to submit the papers, the Organizing Committee has extended the submission deadline to the end of July 30, 2023.

The Conference Organizing Committee would like to announce and hope to receive the participation of relevant agencies, organizations, and individuals in the field of geography, earth science, and environmental science to submit their abstracts and participate in the conference with the following specific information:

- Time of conference: November 8th 2023
- Time 30-year ceremony will be held on 9th November 2023.
- Venue of the conference: Institute of Geography, 18 Hoang Quoc Viet Street, Cau Giay District, Hanoi.
- Languages used in the conference: Vietnamese and English.
- Abstract due: June 15th 2023

- Registration and full paper submission deadline: September 15th 2023

Abstract or full paper submission and registration via link: <https://s.net.vn/jBAD> or QR code. For more detailed information, please find at our website: <http://www.ig-vast.ac.vn>

We hope for the enthusiastic participation of everyone to make the scientific conference and 30th-anniversary of the Institute of Geography a success.

The Conference will enhance your knowledge, widen your professional network and expand your vision while providing a relaxing and memorable time in Hanoi. We look forward to welcoming you.
